SB 1491 - HB 1498

April 26, 1999

SUMMARY OF BILL: Changes the current practice and rules of procedures allowing the admissibility of voluntary confessions without waiving rights given under Miranda v. Arizona.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures - $891,900/Incarceration***

Assumes in .25% of cases of 15,000 where charges did not result in conviction or conviction was for a lesser charge, the admissibility of a confession that was not previously allowed will result in additional convictions for various classifications of felony offenses.

*Section 9-6-119, TCA, requires that: For any law enacted after July 1, 1986, which results in a net increase in periods of imprisonment in state facilities, there shall be appropriated from recurring revenues the estimated operating cost of such law.
